Lo: To write and edit a persuasive letter

On the other hand, I know you might be worried about a whole lot of things here in India, but I ^{know for a fact} ~~know~~ everything will be okay. You probably think that this economic powerhouse is a terrible and petrifying area but I promise it's not real, it's just a myth or even a rumor that everybody keeps spreading. Now I guarantee that you are frightened of not knowing the language or area but don't worry, I'm pretty sure you will pick up the language ~~the~~ really quickly like me. Also Grandma speaks that language so she can translate it for us (so none of my friends here). ~~Also~~ you hope fully there is nothing that you are afraid of anymore.

Now go and pack your ⁶ bag, book your ticket and meet me at the airport here in this magical realm. Make sure you bring me some of those amazing Australian snacks and your camera so you can take photos and keep them as memories for us to always remember each other.

Kind Regards
Your Best Friend Ruby
